The snow came at a fortunate time for me. I had a little mishap that is making it difficult to get around. Not having to handicap last weekend was a blessing.

Once I recovered enough to sit, I dug around in the algorithm looking for bugs and expanding it to look at the previous race if a horse lost by 12 lengths or more. This brought in a horse called Tisquantum who won on Breeder's Cup Saturday paying $54.20.

Connie K is still selected in this version so I am calling it Version CKTQ.

I hope the changes just made will pull the stats up a bit. Good Luck!
